Terms of Reference (TOR)
The Rural Resilience Project
Procurement Assistant

1. Client

The client for this assignment is The Consolidated Programme Implementation Unit (CPIU) which is responsible for day-to-day management and implementation of the Rural Resilience Project (RRP) which has established a robust and well-recognised track record of competent and diligent programme management of IFAD's previous and ongoing projects.

2. Country background

Moldova is a small lower-middle-income economy. Although it is among the poorest countries in Europe, it has made significant progress in reducing poverty and promoting inclusive growth since the early 2000s. Poverty in Moldova dropped from 28 percent in 2010 to 13 percent by 2018. The reduction in poverty, however, stalled in 2019 and has potentially reversed in 2020 following the COVID-19 pandemic. Moldova is exposed to an array of natural hazards, and their impact disproportionately affects the poor.

3. Background on project

The Rural Resilience Project (RRP), the seventh IFAD programme in Moldova (IFAD VII), was designed to be implemented during 72 months period, starting from 14th of August 2017 and completing 30th September 2023. The RRP is joint GoM and IFAD response to the significant challenges facing the rural poor. It also attempts to size the transformative opportunities available at this critical juncture in Moldova's story.

4. Background of the assignment

The primary role of the Procurement Assistant is to provide the needed support for all procurement related activities that are implemented by CPIU IFAD. The Procurement Assistant works on a full-time basis under the direct supervision of the CPIU IFAD Senior Procurement Specialist (SPS). The Project Procurement Assistant will be reporting to the SPS.

5. Overall objectives

The overall goal of the RRP is to improve the well-being of Moldova's rural population and reduce poverty. The underlying project development objective is to strengthen the resilience and improve economic opportunities for the rural poor. This will be achieved by making farms more competitive and helping agribusinesses adopt climate-smart technologies. The RRP targets Moldova's structural issues in agriculture, notably poverty and migration, food and nutritional security, climate vulnerability, as well as lack of competitiveness. It will have targeting mechanisms to ensure broad inclusion in RRP activities, strengthening inclusion mechanisms to benefit more rural poor households, including vulnerable groups and woman-headed households.

6. Objectives of the assignment

The objective of this assignment is to contract an individual consultant to assist project procurement and exercise full compliance with IFAD financial, procurement and administrative rules, regulations, policies as well as implementation of the effective internal control systems.

Under the overall guidance and supervising of the Senior Procurement Specialist, the Procurement Assistant supports the execution of transparent and efficient procurement services and processes consistent with IFAD procurement rules and regulations. She/he also works in collaboration with programme and operations staff to successfully deliver procurement services.
